

Curriculum Vitae
Joseph H. Quinn Jr.

345 Doe Ridge Road
Boone, North Carolina 28607
828-264-7489 joequinn57@hotmail.com

Education

| | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| Master of Arts 2003 | Geography Appalachian State University Boone, North Carolina |
| Bachelor of Arts 1971 | Psychology Colgate University Hamilton, New York |
| Teaching Certificate 1983 | Elementary and Middle Grades Education Appalachian State University Boone, North Carolina Honor Teacher Award for excellence in student teaching |

Certifications

State of North Carolina Teaching License: Elementary (K-6); Intermediate (4-9);
Middle Grades Mathematics, Science, Language Arts; Spanish K-12

Employment History

2009-present Educational Testing Service

- Reader and Scorer for Advanced Placement Human Geography Exams

2004-2009 Translation and Interpretation Services, Watauga County Schools

- Translate school system documents from English to Spanish
- Interpret for administrators, teachers, and parents
- Completed training for Translator and Interpreter for School Settings

2003-present Interim and Substitute Teacher, Watauga County Schools

- Interim Teacher – 8th Grade Math and Science, Parkway Elementary School
- Interim Teacher – Spanish 1, Spanish 2, Watauga High School
- Interim Teacher – Sociology, Psychology, Watauga High School
- Interim Teacher – Exceptional Children Life Skills, Watauga High School
- Substitute Teacher – all middle grades and high school subjects
- Tutor – Watauga High School extended day program

2006 (Fall) Adjunct Faculty, Instructor - Caldwell CC&TI, Watauga Campus

- College Transfer Program

1998-present Adjunct Faculty, Instructor - Appalachian State University

- Department of Geography and Planning
- Department of Health, Leisure, and Exercise Science (Recreation Management)
- Interdisciplinary Studies (University Studies)

1990-2003 Director of Outdoor Programs - Appalachian State University

- Responsible for overall direction of program: curricula, scheduling, budget, staff training and development, hiring, payroll, transportation.
- Managed on-campus facilities and off-campus program sites including access and permits for public and private land.
- Responsible for recruitment, supervision, and evaluation of all personnel: program coordinator, graduate assistants, student instructors.
- Designed, implemented, and managed all program activities: rock climbing, hiking, backpacking, alpine mountaineering, caving, whitewater rafting, sea kayaking, mountain biking, challenge courses.
- Designed, implemented Outward Bound-adapted five-day courses for students in leadership positions (Appalachian Leadership Experience Outdoors).

1984-1988 Classroom Teacher, Coach - New Hanover County Schools

- Teacher, Grades 7, 8, and 9 – D.C. Virgo Junior High School
- Head Soccer Coach, Assistant Football Coach, Assistant Baseball Coach

1979-1990 Instructor, Course Director - North Carolina Outward Bound School

- Instructed all course offerings: standard, intensive, semester, contract, alumni.
- Instructed in all NCOBS course areas: NC, Florida, Mexico, Costa Rica, Peru.
- Course Director for all seasonal standard and intensive course offerings: supervised, managed, and evaluated participants and instructor teams.
- Semester Course Director for three-month courses culminating with foreign expeditions to Mexico, Costa Rica, and Peru.
- Director for skills, leadership, and professional development courses.
- Responsible for course area development and local operating procedures.
- Outward Bound National safety review team member for Colorado OB School.
- Recognized with NCOBS Ten-Year Service and Leadership Award.

Teaching Experience

University courses

- Introduction to Physical Geography
- World Regional Geography
- Geography of Asia
- Geography of U.S. and Canada
- Geography of North Carolina
- Geography of Andean Bolivia*
- Mountain Geography of Wyoming and Idaho* (support*)
- Climbing Site Management
- Wilderness Education Practicum

Community College courses

- World Regional Geography

High School and Middle School courses

- Grade 6: self-contained (student teaching)
- Grades 7-9: Mathematics, Algebra 1, Science, PE & Health
- Grades 9-12: Spanish 1, Spanish 2, Sociology, Psychology

Papers and Publications

- "Inca Natural Hazards Engineering" (Master's Paper, 1996)
- "Vilcabamba: Sacred Sanctuary of the Inca" (Master's Paper, 1997)
- "Resources in Cross-Disciplinary Geography Education for Middle Grades Teachers" (Independent Study Project, 1998)
- "Glacier Research on Ancohuma, Cordillera Real, Bolivia" (American Alpine Journal, 2000)
- "Access Denied?: A Case Study of Wilderness Climbing in Linville Gorge, NC" (Access Fund Video, 2001)
- "William S. Whiting's Logging Railroads: An Historical Geography 1900-1925" (Master's Thesis, 2003)

Presentations

- "ASU Outdoor Programs: A Model for Student-Led Programming" (International Conference on Outdoor Recreation and Education, Oregon State University, 1993)
- "A Common Adventure Approach to Staff Training and Development in University Outdoor Programs" (ICORE, University of Calgary, 1994)
- "Skills Development for Risk Management" (National Risk Managers Conference, Snowbird Resort, Utah, 1995)
- "Issues in Student-Led Programming" (ICORE, Cornell University, 1996).
- "Developing and Managing a University Alpine Mountaineering Program" (ICORE, Jackson Hole, Wyoming, 1998)
- "An Historical and Contemporary Overview of the Mexico/U.S. Border" Appalachian State University General Education classes (2011)

Professional Memberships and Affiliations

- Association of Outdoor Education and Recreation (AORE): founding Board of Directors member; chair Risk Management and Accreditation Committee
- American Mountain Guides Association: professional member
- American Alpine Club: Grand Teton Climbers' Ranch Committee member
- Mountain Alliance: founding board of directors; instructor and facilitator

Languages

- I speak, read, and write Spanish.

